Chiropractor Fixes "Broken Neck"

After two years' wearing truss, to avoid unconsciousness, this man, now a prominent Chiropractor in Indiana, was restored to normal in one Chiropractic adjustment.

Diving in shallow water was the cause of injury, and all hope had been abandoned for recovery. After the adjustment, patient became unconscious for half an hour, after which he rose, picked up his truss and walked home with it under his arm-well.

"Many socalled 'impossible' cases get well under Chiropractic," said F. C. Mighton, and W. C. Weirick, local

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mystic Lodge No. 2 and William McKinley Lodge No. 8 are preparing to celebrate the 53d anniversary of the founding of the order by giving a dance at their Castle Hall, Saturday evening, March 10, 1917. The entertaining committee of both lodges have been busy issuing invitations to the members and friends, and it is their earnest desire and request that all visiting Knights of Pythias, who are now residing or visiting the islands, send their names to Knights Pythias, P. O. Box 140, Honolulu. and invitations will be sent them.

To enable a fisherman to get some rest, a bracket to be clamped to the side of a boat or any convenient ledge to hold his pole has been invented, a portion of it also acting as a brake on he reel.

On the little island of St. Ba'tiste justice is still meted out in the manner prescribed by the forefathers of the present inhabitants of the island several centuries ago. Punishment is administered by the prefect or governor of the island and the implement of punishment is a many thronged whip, a "cat o' nine tails" multiplied.

"The Lash" is the name used for this whip and "The Lash" is among the best of the Paramount Pictures, presenting the fascinating Marie Dore, which comes to the Liberty theater tonight. Miss Doro appears as one of the beautiful daughters of St. Ba'tiste, daughter of the prefect. She is wooed and won by a fashionable member of the leading society on the mainland adjoining her native island. There is another woman and this latter individual attempts to win the affection of the husband of the prefect's daughter.

Memory of her home is strong within the young wife, she also realizes that the laws of the strange folks with whom she has taken up her abode give her no relief. She therefore reverts to the primitive as she had learned it on St. Ba'tiste and applies the lash to her rival with the most remarkable success. The supporting cast includes the husband of the star, Elliott Dexter, James Neill, Thomas Delmar, Jane Wolff, Raymond Hatton and Veda Mo

CALIFORNIA TEMPLARS SEND AN APPRECIATION OF THEIR HAWAII TRIP

LAMPS FOR HENS SO THEY WORK LONGER

NEZ PERCES. Idaho. - Gasoline amps are used by Mrs. W. H. Baringer to lengthen the working days of her hens. Mrs. Baringer lights the lamps at 6 o'clock in the morning in the winter months and keeps them lighted until 8:30 p. m. In this way, she says, she increases the egg output of her flock. Mrs. Baringer says a hen can't see to scratch her dinner out of the litter tefore 8 a. m., nor after 3:30 p. m., which leaves Biddy only seven and a nall hours for work. By adding to the hen's working hours. Mrs. Baringer declares the efficiency of the egg-· making machine is increased.

Humor, the savior of many situations, is all that keeps many from going completely mad in the face of the awful scenes they are continually called to face on the battlefields of Europe, according to Dr. D. Smyley of the British Army Medical Corps, who is taking a short rest in Hawali after 20 months of active service in the field hospitals. She also tells of some amusing incidents under the most trying circumstances.

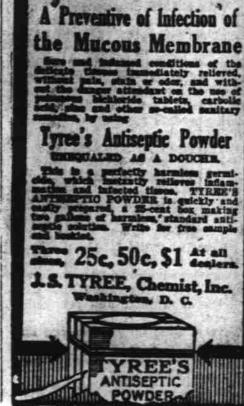

It is quite common for an omnibus full of hale and hearty young recruits going out to the front to fill up the gaps in the line to meet an ambulance full of stricken and dying men coming back. Often the latter cry out with all the life that yet lingers in them, 'Are we down-hearted?" And quickly the cry comes back from those bound for the trenches, "NO! Down with the

In a spirit of gaiety an officer had painted a sign over his dug-out, "The Vicarage." One of a troop of London Tommies charging past the place, forgetting the death he was shortly going to, cried out to his comrades, "I saye; wot do you know; 'ere's a bit of a bloomin' vicarage." About this time the officer, who was shaving at the time, thrust his lathered face out on the door to the hut and cried back. 'Yes, an' here's th' bloomin' vicar."

Another time when all that was left of a wounded Britisher had been picked up and placed on a stretcher preparatory to being carried to the rear a trace of a smile spread over the authority he ordered in a low voice, 'Home, William."
